«University Club, Pall Mall, East London» The writer says, "My work on America was sent to Garrison with the copyright." Talks at length about this work. Mentions a Dr. Julius, who was charged with the inspection of U. S. prisons. Recommends the passages in his book on the treatment of colored prisoners and urges that Von Raumer be guarded against the deceptions of the slaveholders. Says that John Scoble had written J. Leavitt to warn C. Dickens against similar misrepresentations. Claims that there is a form of censorship in operation in England. G. Thompson alluded to it. A German letter referred to a claim made at a meeting of the Malta Anti-Slavery Society that Mohammedanism permitted slavery. Discusses the attitude of the Quakers toward the Anti-Slavery cause. Also the annexation of Texas. Criticises the attitude of the politicians

c ? , A severe criticism of the Emancipation Act. This manuscript may have been taken from E. S. Abdy's Journal. Says that the "mean subserviency" of English travelers "is not likely to be repeated." Says his interview with Dr. Channing has been "strangely misrepresented." The writer was accused of declining the refreshments offered. The London Committee of the Anti-Slavery Society opposes the introduction of laborers into the West Indies, and urges the protection of the sugar industry by means of tariffs and subsidies. A schism has developed within the ranks of the British & Foreign Anti-Society.

To Richard Davis Webb

«Leicester, Mass.» The writer says that documents of the type of the National Protest are not generally printed in the religious papers because of the "pro-slavery meanness" of their editors. Thinks the signers of Protests should follow them up with action.

To Rev. Samuel May Jr.

Worcester, Mass.?. The writer sends a message to Rev. Seth Alden through Rev. May that ill health prevents his attendance at the October 30th meeting at Leicester to confer on the propriety of calling a convention on Slavery. He adds further that he doubts the effectiveness of conventions and public declarations by ministers and he thinks Abolitionist movements retard emancipation. In his opinion, ministers should work individually against Slavery.
